Blowing Leaves Pendant

3d printed from nylon. Organic Modern design that captures the intense light of an LED within a cluster of tiny leaves that mount directly to the LED pendant module. The pendant glows from within and drops a leaf pattern shadow on the surface below like bright sunlight through a forest canopy.

Lamped with one ETL listed 4.7w 12v LED module with an ELV transformer included. Comes with custom sized nickel post and standard 5" canopy. Pendant measures 5" diameter x 7" H
Choice of White or Green nylon shade
